COUNCIL REFUSES PERMIT FOR GASOLINE STORAGE

The regular meeting of the town council was held on Monday night, with Mayor Farmer, Councillors E.
Morgan, A. E. Ferguson, M. Hamilton, W. McVey, M. Sartoris and W.
A. Beebe, and Secretary Kelly present.

The minutes of previous regular meeting of the council were adopted as read, and a few accounts were passed for payment.

Mr. Watt, representing the British-American Oil Co., was present and supported his company's application for permission to erect gasoline and oil storage warehouses here, on a site offered by the C.P.R., immediately east of the warehouses of the Imperial Oil Co. and Canadian Oils, Limited.

Referring to the by-law recently passed by the Blairmore council, which prohibits the establishing of any additional warehouses of more than a limited capacity, Mr. Watt stated that such apparent discriminatory and was the first instance he knew of where such prohibitory measures had been adopted. He cited various centres where oil and gas storage tanks had been permitted, some in even closer proximity to residential sections than the site proposed here, and in no case had a request for permission to come into a town been refused. On the contrary, most towns were prepared to offer inducements to the new business offering.

He considered Blairmore the centre of the district, as well as the liveliest town. His company had been asked to locate elsewhere in The Pass, but they preferred Blairmore as the business centre. As to danger of explosion, it was stated that the modern storage tanks were so constructed with safety valves, etc., that there was no need for worry in this respect.

A petition, signed by residents of the immediate neighborhood of the proposed site was read to the meeting, asking that the British-American Co. be granted permission to come in, but the council by a vote of four to three decided not to rescind the by-law. Councillors Ferguson, Sartoris and Beebe declared in favor of a motion to rescind; Mayor Farmer and Councillors McVey, Hamilton and Morgan against.

Offer of Mr. J. R. Gresham for the purchase of lots 21 and 22 in block 6, Plan 3319-1, was considered favorably.

A revised list of lands covered by caveats was received by the secretary from the land titles office and filed.

The department of attorney-general advised that action for the recovery of the $2000 bond, covering former secretary Wright, has been instituted against the Railway Passengers Insurance Co.

A letter was received from the secretary of the Musical Festival, acknowledging receipt of the town's donation of $100. Also letter from Secretary Chappell, of the United Church Quarterly Official Board, thanking the council for generous water and light concessions.

Application for transfer of license was received by Charles S. Yen, formerly of the Rex Cafe, formerly the American. Upon motion by Beebe-Ferguson, the request was granted.

CARPETBALL

A meeting of all interested in carpetball will be held in the Club Room of the United Church on Friday night, April the 8th, at 8 o'clock, to organize a league. Anyone interested is welcome to attend.—F. Anderson, president.

Mr. J. M. Carter came in from Seattle by Saturday night's train.
Mr. Carter has arranged to move his family to Vancouver and hopes to leave here about May the 1st.

MONTHLY MEETING OF SCHOOL BOARD

The March meeting of the Blair-more Board of School Trustees was held in the secretary's office on Friday night last, with Messrs. Chappell, Beebe, Pinkney, Tompkins and Mc-Donald present.

The minutes of previous meeting were approved as read and a number of accounts were passed for payment.

In connection with the account of Messrs. Gillis & Mackenzie, for $1,911.27, fees and taxed costs in connection with the Board's reference against the action of Thoreson et al.
the secretary advised that the sum of $1,024.94 was still unsettled. The Board were advised by their solicitors of the offer of the Teachers' Alliance of $600 in settlement of the Board's claim of around $1000. This offer the Board declined to accept, whereupon garnishee summonses had been issued against such members of the former staff as were employed or earning. Up to the present, one remittance in this connection was received, from Miss Williams.

Tompkins-McDonald—That resolution, as per form 432, be filled as required by the Royal Bank of Canada, authorizing the chairman and secretary-treasurer to transact business with the bank. Carried.

The Board decided that school would be closed from Thursday, April 14th, to Monday morning, April 25th, for the Easter vacation.

Report of Inspector Bremner on the public school was read and considered.

Too Late!

With the memory of the theatre holocaust, in which some scores of little children were the victims, still fresh in their minds, the citizens of Montreal are passing through another tragedy, an epidemic of typhoid fever which, at the time of writing, has afflicted over 1,200 people and resulted in over forty deaths.

The taking of proper precautions and the provision of necessary safeguards would have saved the people of Montreal from the arrows of the theatre fire, and, in like manner, the present typhoid epidemic could easily have been prevented.

It is the same old story over and over again of locking the stable door after the horse has been stolen, and one is sometimes inclined to question whether human beings are, after all, so much superior in intelligence to animals. In the case of animals it is noticeable that once bitten they are twice shy, but humans go on repeating the same blunder time after time and pay large penalties in sorrow, suffering and loss.

Following the Montreal theatre fire an investigation was made into every theatre and hall of public assembly in the city to ascertain whether they were in a condition safeguarding the lives of those attending them. Practically all of them were found deficient in some respects; some were condemned and closed up. It should not have required a great catastrophe and the loss of many lives to lead civic officials to discharge a duty which should be receiving their attention all the time.

And now, when it is too late, investigation has established that the typhoid outbreak is the result of impure milk supplied to citizens. One man kills another and he has to face a trial for murder or manslaughter. In Montreal one thousand and more are lying on sick beds in homes and hospitals fighting for life, and more than two score are dead, all the result of criminal negligence.

In the case of this typhoid outbreak there is double neglect on the part of the health authorities. In the first place it was their sworn duty to safeguard the health of all citizens through the assurance of a supply of pure milk. That is one of the duties of a civic health department, and for the discharge of which they are paid salaries out of the taxes of the ratepayers. In the second place, medical science has placed in their hands the means of preventing typhoid, of rendering people immune from its ravages. Now that the epidemic is raging energetic steps are being taken to inoculate tens of thousands of citizens, when, in the case of many, it is overhanging too late.

Not only so, but these emergency measures cost many times as much in effort and money as the day to day carrying on of this all important work would cost in the regular work of health administration. Why is it that municipal councils insist they cannot afford to expend money to protect the health and lives of their people, and then expend many times the required amount in a frantic endeavor to overcome the evil which through their shortsightedness has resulted?

And let not other places adopt a "holier than thou" attitude toward Montreal; rather let them examine their own municipal households. It is a well established fact that smallpox, diphtheria and typhoid fever can be absolutely prevented and banished from our midst. These frightful diseases can be regarded as extinct as the dodo, leprosy or yellow fever. Yet they continue to stalk through the land claiming their thousands of victims every year. Why? Because of what amounts to criminal negligence on the part of health officials and people generally.

Our Western prairie provinces pride themselves in their work for the promotion of health, but they still have a long way to travel in the direction of the eradication of preventable disease. There is much educational work yet to be done, and it is sincerely to be hoped that provincial health departments, municipal councils and health officers, all doctors and every organization interested in the health, happiness and well-being of the people will throw themselves unreservedly into the campaigns now in progress at many points under the "Seymour Plan" for the wiping out of preventable disease. The community which does not engage in this warfare stamps itself as hopelessly backward, and indifferent to the best interests and highest welfare of its people.

A Lesson in Multiplication

If a grain of wheat were placed on the first square of a chessboard, two grains on the second, four on the third, eight on the fourth and so on, the total number on the sixty-four squares would be 18,446,744,073,709,551,615.

Canada's Certain Destiny

Viscount Willingdon Says Dominion to be One of the Great Nations of the World

Canada's certain destiny is to be one of the great nationalities of the world, a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations, but free and independent in its administrative life, Viscount Willingdon declared in an address before the Canadian Club at Victoria.

The Governor-General outlined his vision of the Empire, "an empire the like of which the world has never seen, an empire which, whatever pessimists may say, it is my firm belief that the more independent and free the various parts become in matters of administration the closer will be the ties of loyalty that bind them to the throne."

Britain, he said, is still full of life and vigor despite the troubles of post-war years.

Stomach Cramps Yield to "Nervine"

When doubled up at midnight with cramps you don't feel like experimenting, what you want is something to remove the cramp. Nothing acts so effectively as Nervine. Take twenty drops in a little sweetened water, and quick as wink the cramp is gone. Nervine is about five times as strong as most medicines, and because so strong only a small dose is required to give instant effect. For stomach, gas, fermentation, cramps, etc., Nervine should be kept in every home. For sure protection, get "Nervine" today. See at dealers.

Found Millions But Received No Reward

British Officer Left Sick Bed to Locate Wreck of Laurotic

No Admiralty recognition has come to Commander George Unsworth, D.S.O., D.S.C., R.N.R., who located the "Laurotic," from which $25,000,000 in bullion has been salvaged. Commander Unsworth, who is now in charge of a steamer trading between Glasgow and the Continent, was a pilot in Irish waters and mine clearance officer of the Lough Swilly flotilla when the "Laurotic" struck.

He saved the ship's complement, but suffered so much from exposure that he was admitted to London's Hospital. Admiralty officials, failing to locate the treasure-laden vessel, Commander Unsworth insisted on leaving his sick bed to take part in the search. His lack of sleep and waters enabled him to discover the wreck and buoy the spot, making possible the recent salvage operations, for which honors and reward have been generously bestowed.

The Admiralty apparently regard the commander's part as all in the day's work, for so far it has gone without recognition.

Documents Are Guarded In Westminster Abbey

Some Historical Papers Date Back to Eighth Century

The Muniment Room at Westminster Abbey contains a collection of historical documents that probably has no counterpart the world over. Closely guarded in locked, iron-bound chests, the papers kept there number over 100,000, and some of them date back to the eighth century. These documents are now being prepared and edited for publication, and Dr. Scott, the librarian of the British Museum, is making a careful precis of 57,000 of the more important.

Map Shows Many Lakes

Area North-East of Winnipeg is Maze of Waterways

In the past few years, interest has been turned to the region in Western Ontario lying North of the transcontinental railway line, due to mineral activities in such localities as Red Lake and the surrounding territory.

Aerial flying in this general region has assumed such importance that it has been considered advisable to issue an "aeronautical map" for the special use of air pilots. This map, known as the Winnipeg District Aeronautical Map, is printed in colors on the scale of 4 miles to an inch and covers an area from Winnipeg to a point about 50 miles east of Kenora and from the latter place to the point where the Ontario-Manitoba boundary line turns in its course from due north to north-easterly.

This area exhibits many variations but its most striking characteristic is the intricate maze of water features that are strewn down in the vicinity of the Ontario-Manitoba boundary line and easterly therefrom. In order that the air pilot may at all times know his location from the ground features below, all water features are mapped that it is possible to show on the scale used. The result is a net work of lakes and rivers that would be confusing in their multiplicity if special means were not taken to simplify them. This is done, on the map, by indicating the regularly travelled water routes in a special color and also by differentiating the main waterways from the rest.

The map, although designed particularly for use of aviators, should prove equally serviceable to the general public. For those who wish to travel in this region, whether by dog team in winter or by canoe in summer, it shows the features in much greater detail than is usual for the scale used. It may be obtained from the Topographical Survey Department of the Interior, Ottawa, for the nominal price of 25 cents, or desired in folder form, for 50 cents.

Eat Raw Wheat

Parisians Extol Benefits Derived From Latest Grain

Raw wheat as a food for all life is the latest craze of intellectual Parisians.

Andre Papin, a writer on dietetics, started in a series of articles in Concordia, the theatrical and artistic daily newspaper, extolling the beneficial effects of munching a teaspoonful of germinating wheat before luncheon every day.

Wheat he declares, contains in an unusual degree the vitamins lacking in other articles of food, particularly the nerve stimulating B variety. Many persons followed his advice and professed to have obtained immense benefit.

Now fashionable doctors are prescribing it for their patients and the principal restaurants are arranging to serve the magic teaspoonful as a hors d'oeuvre.

REDUCTION IN C.N.R. ESTIMATES FOR THIS YEAR

Ottawa.—The report of the Canadian National Railways for 1926, and main estimates totalling $22,500,000 for the system covering the fiscal year 1927-28, were approved by the special committee on national railways and shipping, of the House of Commons. Estimates for the ensuing financial year represent a decrease of $5,500,000 as compared with the fiscal year 1926-27. Of this sum, $17,531,418 is to be spent on general additions and betterments. The balance of the amount is to be expended for contingencies, such as wage and other increases.

Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C.N.R., under examination, informed the committee that the wage settlement of December last with conductors and trainmen would cost the system between $5,500,000 and $6,000,000 in 1927. This calculation included increases to various other trades within the railways arising as a consequence of the wage agreement.

"I do not begrudge recognition to the employees," commented Sir Henry. "It has been said that elections do not succeed by prayer alone, and in the railway business the time came when something tangible was expected in return for good and conscientious work."

Sir Henry was also of the opinion that "with the zeal, energy and spirit of the employees," the National Railways would again show a "satisfactory increase" in net earnings in 1927. If business conditions continued on their present scale and there was no reduction in freight rates.

It should be remembered, remarked Sir Henry, that the road had increased its net earnings from $3,000,000 in 1922 to $18,000,000 in 1926. This increase in four years was considerable and was "largely due to the fine spirit of the men which you have the opportunity of judging that I have."

Refuse Passport To Communist Leader

Garden Cannot Attend Party at Canton Says Australian Government
Sydney, Australia.—The Australian Government has refused a passport to the well-known Communist leader, James Garden, and three colleagues to attend the Pan-Pacific Trade Union Congress at Canton.

The Government's action has caused great stir in London, from the conservative and the extreme left who uphold the labor bodies and the state labor governments in a concerted protest.

As it is the intention to discuss peace in the Pacific, from the conservative viewpoint of present conditions in China, this is believed to be the reason for the official refusal to grant the passport.

No Increase in Postmasters' Salaries or Commissions This Year

Ottawa.—"We have arranged that there will be no difference this year as compared to last year in the amount of money awarded to postmasters either as salary or commission. We understand that postmasters have been looking forward to an increase, but we are not in a position to make any definite announcement in this regard until after the expiration of one full financial year's operation under the penny postage system," said Hon. P. J. Venoit, postmaster-general, addressing the sixth convention of the Canadian Postmasters' Association at the closing session.

Matter of Defence Left With Government

Canada Not Bound in Any Way Says Premier King

Ottawa.—"In no way" has this Parliament or country been bound by decisions made by the Imperial Conference, last fall," declared Premier W. L. Mackenzie King, in the House of Commons, when he reviewed the report adopted at the Conference, in London. Referring to the question of defence, Premier King declared that no commitments had been made on behalf of Canada with respect to defence, and no request had been made on behalf of the British Government in the matter. It was for each Dominion, through its own government and parliament, to decide.

"It is for this Parliament to say to what extent Canada will take in all matters pertaining to defence," said the Premier.

Spanish-South American Air Service Planned

Will Be Started If German Government Finances Completion of Airship

Berlin.—Airship service between Spain and South America, starting within 18 months, is predicted by Hugo Eckener, Zeppelin expert, provided the German Government furnishes the remaining 2,000,000 marks necessary for the completion of the airship to be used which is being built in Germany.

Similar agreements are expected to be negotiated with the Argentine and other South American governments. It is planned at first to make a round trip to South America, every three weeks, carrying a 15-ton cargo consisting mostly of mails but including some passengers. It is estimated that the flight to South America will require from 75 to 80 hours.

Many Claimants to Millions

Dutch Merchant's Fortune Has Drawn Interest for 200 Years

Adelaide, Australia.—A fortune of $500,000,000 which has been bequeathed at interest for 200 years, is to be subject of issue in the courts, according to claims that are now being filed here.

Edward Webber, merchant prince of Holland in the days when the Dutch gale was supreme in the world of commerce, died in New York leaving an eccentric will, bequeathing an enormous sum to his seventh generation, claimants assert.

The fortune, which has now grown to $500,000,000, may create at least 150 Australian millionaires for more than that number in the city of Adelaide alone claim a share.

The claimants are calling a meeting to discuss the matter.

Pensions Act

No Further Amendments to Be Made to the Present Act

Ottawa.—"The Government does not intend to extend the present provisions of the pension act by further amendments this year," stated Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Health and Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment, in the House.

The present pension legislation, said Dr. King, provides pensions for all disabilities "attributed to or incurred during military service," and for "disabilities resulting from injury or disease or the aggravation thereof incurred during military service." No ex-soldier who was no disabled was denied a pension, but responsibility could not be accepted for those whose disabilities were not related to war service.

Gain in Employment

Ottawa.—There was a moderate gain in employment at the beginning of March, the upward movement being rather more extensive than in earlier years recorded. The largest increases took place in manufacturing and construction, while logging, mining and trade were seasonally slower.

Is Made An Indian Chief

Victoria, B.C.—His Excellency Lord Willington, Governor-General of Canada, is now Chief of Gutsuhub, or Chief Nanhow, of the Vancouver Island Indian tribes, having been initiated here in one of the most picturesque and colorful ceremonies ever witnessed in this city.

Pensioning Bill Passed

Ottawa.—Third readings have been given in the Senate to the bills originating in the House of Commons, to provide for the retirement and pensioning of Supreme Court judges at the age of 75 and for the creation of an additional judge on the Supreme Court bench.

Lower Duty on Livestock

Western Stock Growers Are Asking For Relief

Calgary.—Urging the Dominion to take all available measures to obtain relief from United States duty on livestock entering that country, the Western Stock Growers' Association addressed a resolution to the Federal Government. Another resolution pointed out the necessity for keeping grain and screenings in Canada and prohibiting export of this commodity to the United States. A petition will be submitted to railways asking reduction of rates on horses to an equality with cattle. The Alberta Government was asked for an appropriation for experiments with grazing rotation and rehabilitation of native grasses. Dr. S. F. Toole told the convention that farmers are "losing ten million dollars a year marketing beef of poor quality," and urged establishment of beef grading to better this condition.

FOREIGNERS ARE FLEEING FROM INTERIOR CHINA

Shanghai.—With another general strike in the offing and with Shanghai the centre of a continued flight of foreigners from the interior, the defence authorities here made further preparations to protect the international settlement.

A barbed wire barrier now is being constructed along the entire length of the Avenue Edward VII, between the French concession and the international settlement. The Suffolk Regiment also was assigned to guard the offices of the cable companies situated in the Avenue.

The date of the new general strike, which has been decided upon by the general labor union, will be fixed later. There are about 20,000 miscellaneous workers still out from the last strike.

Meanwhile the Japanese naval authorities warned the Cantonese that the Japanese navy will heretofore take drastic steps in the event of unlawful actions by Nationalist soldiers or in the event of firing on Japanese steamers without good cause.

"Reports continue of firing on foreign vessels in the Yangtze by Nationalist soldiers on either side of the river. Two British steamers leaving Hankow, which has again become the centre of anti-foreign activities, were fired on. The American destroyer, John D. Ford, which recently came from Manila, was fired on between Shanghai and Hankow. The destroyer brought its four-inch guns and machine guns into action in reply.

Disquieting reports have been coming from Hankow, scene of anti-foreign disorders some time ago. Advice from a Japanese source in that city said that soldiers in civilian clothes, ruffians and labor pickets were overrunning the city and that the Japanese women and children there will embark on the first available steamer.

Although the great majority of missionaries in the interior of China are now en route for Shanghai, or planning to start soon, about 100 missionaries to leave their posts in the Yangtze Valley, despite the advice of authorities.

Trappers Overtake Swift Deer

Many tales have drifted down from the north of how men have overhauled and captured wolves, deer and other swift-footed inhabitants of the woods of Ontario and Quebec. Readers of such have often been skeptical but the above photograph, taken only a short distance from the Canadian Pacific lines in the Laurentian Mountains, proves that such a thing is possible. In the case of deer at least. Heavy snow, as can be seen, accounts for this and in the pictures above several trappers on snowshoes have succeeded in capturing two animals in question. The deer looking placidly into the camera was no doubt caught only after an exhausting chase through the deep drifts. The little doe that seems to be just an animal for the trapper, will doubtless be admired in a short time by thousands of people in some city park. Trappers in the northern sections of Ontario and Quebec have saved many of these young animals from death by freeing them from heavy drifts of snow, and thus keeping them from packs of hungry wolves.

AMENDMENTS TO GRAIN ACT ARE BEFORE HOUSE

Ottawa.—Amendments to the Canada Grain Act, proposed by the board of grain commissioners, were tabled in the House of Commons, along with correspondence between the Minister of Trade and Commerce and the commission.

On February 5, the minister wrote to the commission asking for suggested amendments. On February 7, Leslie H. Boyd, chief commissioner, replied, setting forth the proposals. He stated that the board believed the provisions of the drafted amendments would give the farmer the same privileges as "the Campbell bill," which was before the Commons last session. The commissioner's proposals, however, defined the conditions under which grain might be delivered to a country point if the farmer desired to take delivery of the same and ship it to any specified elevator or point.

The drafted amendments covered the duties of country elevators. While the present grain act limits liabilities as to weights and grades, the commission's proposal covers these two important points and gives the board power to make regulations covering the method of drawing samples. The board, too, could investigate disputes regarding grades and weights. In his letter, Mr. Boyd stated that he believes the proposals to be fair and reasonable to all parties.

Manitoba Liberal Leader

Judge Hugh A. Robson Elected to Succeed Hon. T. C. Norris

Winnipeg.—Judge Hugh A. Robson, K.C., prominent in the public life of the West for many years, is the new leader of the provincial Liberal party. He was elected to succeed Hon. T. C. Norris, who tendered his resignation a year ago, at a party convention held here.

Judge Robson was elected from a slate of several nominees, headed by Fred C. Hamilton, former president of the provincial Liberal Association. Mr. Robson who is the leader of the Liberal group in the Legislature, was nominated, but withdrew his name. Judge Robson, who was born in Harrow-in-Purness, England, in 1871, came to Canada in 1882, and is a pioneer resident of Winnipeg.

Death of Sir Charles Tupper

Was One of Canada's Most Distinguished Elder Statesmen

Vancouver.—Hon. Sir Charles Tupper, K.C.M.G., K.C.L.B., died at his home here following an attack of pneumonia which had confined him to his home for nearly two weeks.

Sir Charles was one of Canada's most distinguished statesmen. He was born in Amherst, N.S., in 1855 the son of the late Right Hon. Sir Charles Tupper at one time prime minister of the Dominion.

Salt For Dyspepsia

Washington.—Common salt is as effective as any other remedy for dyspepsia, according to reports of research at the University of Melbourne, Australia, recently received here. Dr. F. A. Apperly has found that common salt helps certain types of plain dyspepsia.

Attained Terrific Speed

Major Segrave Drives Car 205 Miles Per Hour

New York.—Major Segrave's record of 205.7294 miles an hour at Dayton, Ohio, marked the nearest approach to the highest speed man has attained, 275 miles an hour, in an airplane. This air record was set by Florin Bonnet, of France, in December, 1924. The fastest mark by rail was that set by an engine in a five mile run from Fleming to Jacksonville, Fla. in 1901, by attaining an average of 120 miles an hour.

On the water, Miss Detroit, in 1920, at Lake George, set a record of 77.85 miles an hour for speed boats, while on the Solent, England, the Maple Leaf II made 80 miles an hour in 1921.

The record of the Cunard Line, Mauretania is 27.04 knots, while that of the Leviathan is 28.04.

British Will Protect Colony of Hong Kong

Have No Intention of Diminishing Rights or Authority

Hong Kong.—The British government will give full protection to the colony of Hong Kong and the leased territories on the mainland during the civil warfare in China, according to assurances given by the local secretary of state.

The secretary's communication said the government has no intention of surrendering Hong Kong or abandoning or diminishing in any way the rights or authority in any part of the territories under its administration.

Increase In Taxable Value of Property

Statistics Show Figures Higher for Period From 1919 to 1925

Ottawa.—An increase of $1,303,772, 386 in the total taxable value of real property in Canada is shown for the year 1926 as compared with 1919, according to a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The total value of taxable property in the Dominion was $7,331,785,535 in the year under review as against $6,028,012,649 in 1919.

Personal property, which is only taxed in certain provinces, increased from $52,939,719 in 1919 to $56,452,434 in 1925.

Harvesters From Oxford

University Students Plan to Help Canadian Farmers This Year

Oxford.—Oxford University students are planning to help harvest the Canadian wheat crop next summer. Parties of students are being recruited under the joint auspices of the Canadian government and a Canadian railway. They will sail in July for Montreal and will work on Ontario farms until the middle of August, moving on later to Manitoba and returning to England for the re-opening of college in October.

THE EQUALITY OF STATUS BINDING BRITISH EMPIRE

Ottawa.—Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice and chairman of the Imperial Conference committee of treaty-making powers, continued the House debate on the Imperial Conference, Mr. Lapointe was emphatic that the Imperial conference of 1926 has no authority to change one iota of the British North America Act or any constitution of the Empire. What the conference did, Mr. Lapointe explained, was to crystallize "the principle of equality of status," which was already recognized and which was the logical outcome of the development of the various nations. It published a definite, clear and official adherence to that principle. It did it in such a way as to make it the greatest contribution to the permanency of the free association of the nations of the Empire. It is the final and unequivocal acceptance of the principle of unity and liberty, unity preserved and liberty in the British throne and liberty in all domestic and external activities of the various nations of the commonwealth. It is no longer the case of "A daughter am I in my mother's house, but a mistress in my own."

"The family is a family of sisters equal in their rights and activities."

And, concluding his speech, Mr. Lapointe declared in words of Liberal applause, that the principles underlying the pact would maintain the way to peace, progress and nationhood.

POWERS WILL MAKE DEMAND FOR REPARATION

London.—Great Britain is contemplating making certain demands of the Chinese Nationalist authorities in connection with the anti-foreign outrages at Nanking but it was not known whether these demands would be made separately or in conjunction with other powers. It is understood here that the British draft demands an apology and reparation for the Nanking affair as well as punishment of the guilty persons and guarantees against the repetition of such outbreaks.

Exchanges are said to be in progress between various capitals on the subject of concerted representations by the foreign powers involved in the Chinese situation. The British government is known to be reluctant to act separately, considering the case one suited for united action by the powers.

The delay in delivery of the note to the Chinese authorities is taken to indicate that some difficulty is being encountered in securing the assent of other governments to joint action. The British press and public are displaying keen anxiety for Great Britain and the United States to move together in whatever action is taken.

Slave Expedition Attacked By Burmese

Natives Kill One British Officer and Two Men

Rangoon, Burma.—Disaster has befallen one of two slave emancipation expeditions operating in the Kachin Hill country of North Burma. Captain West of the British Army and two members of his expedition were killed in an attack by natives. Three others were wounded and Interpreter is missing. Reinforcements of military police were sent to the district. Communication in the region is possible only by means of the helicopter and had visibility prevented details from reaching here.

In the Huguang Valley, lying between the areas in which the two above expeditions are working, about 1000 slaves were freed last year, the government paying compensation to the owners.

India Not Ready For Self-Government

Is Incompetent to Work Out Destiny

London.—The Earl of Birkenhead, secretary for India, told the House of Lords in substance that India is not competent to work out her own destiny while the antagonism between Moslems and Hindus continues.

His declaration was made during debate over the advisability of granting India a greater measure of self-government. Lord Birkenhead told the House that the general political outlook for India is promising and he has seen signs of co-operation between the British and the natives. He remarked, however, that if the agitators recently imprisoned for sedition were released a recurrence of disorders could be expected.

New English Auto Rules

London.—Drastic alterations in automobile regulations are proposed in a new Government bill. No speed limit is fixed, but Parliament will be asked to decide between no limit and a fixed limit. A new offense, "careless driving," is created. Drivers must declare that they are physically fit to drive and insurance will be compulsory for all motor vehicles.

Bill Given Third Reading

Ottawa.—The Government's rural credits bill was given third reading in the Senate after the Upper House had amended it, with the same provisions that it had insisted upon last year. The bill is known as "An act to establish in Canada a system of long term mortgage credits for farmers."

Leaving For Australia

Ottawa.—Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, leaves Thursday night for Vancouver where he will embark for Australia on April 6. Mr. Lapointe will represent Canada at the opening of the Australian Parliament buildings at Canberra on May the 8th.

Votes As Free Man

Victoria, B.C.—Exercising the privilege granted him by Victoria's rural credits bill, a member of the House of Commons, Mr. Lapointe cast a vote on a civic by-law here, said to be the first time in the history of Canada that a governor-general has cast a ballot in municipal affairs.

THE NOON HOUR

"Now, my little man," said the barber to young Hamilton, "how do you want your hair cut?"

Boy—"With a hole in the top like dad's."

The following item appeared in one of our exchanges: "Usually the crowing and closing event of the curling season is a mixe drink." Evidently the "d" was misplaced.

Customer—"I don't want to buy your crackers; they tell me the mice are always running over them."

Grocer—"That ain't so; why, the cat sleeps in the barrel every night."

Customer in Thompson's store—"I'd like to see some majamas, please."

Clerk—"You mean pajamas, don't you?"

Customer—"No, they're to give to my mother on her birthday."

An American was trying to impress on his British host the vast area of his native country. "Why," he exclaimed, after many futile attempts to get his friend to understand what he meant, "I can get on a train in Pennsylvania at seven o'clock at night and at seven next morning I can still be in Pennsylvania."

The other seemed to grasp his friend's meaning at last, for he smiled and answered: "H'm! Well, we've trains like that on our railways, too, but we don't boast of 'em!"

The Gentle Lineman

A spinster living in a suburb was shocked at the language used by two men repairing telegraph wires close to her house.

She wrote to the company on the matter and the foreman was asked to report. This he did in the following way:

"Me and Bill Fairweather were on this job. I was up the telegraph pole, and accidentally let the hot lead fall on Bill. It went down his back. Then he said: 'You must be more careful, Harry.'"

Jones had started country traveling for a new house, and departed from London in high spirits. His letters to the firm during the first week were full of hope and promise. There were chances of orders here, there, and everywhere, but he had not got them yet. He told the manager in each letter that the promises were feathers in his cap. Eventually he ran short of cash, and wired for some to pay his fare home. He received the reply: "In each letter you say you have earned another feather. String them together and fly home."

Why He Didn't Stand

"It was married men's night at a revival meeting. 'Let all you husbands who have troubles on your minds stand up!'" shouted the minister at the height of his appeal.

Instantly every man in the church arose, except one.

"Ah!" exclaimed the minister, peering at the lone individual who occupied a chair near the door, "you are one in a million!"

"It ain't that," piped back the man, helplessly, as the rest of the congregation gazed suspiciously at him. "I can't get up. I'm paralyzed."

Schoolboy "Howlers"

Amusing schoolboy "howlers" are quoted in a number of the "University Correspondent." Among them are these:

The Gorgons had long snakes for hair, tusks for teeth, and claws for nails, and they looked like women, only more horrible.

Shakespeare wrote "The Merry Widow."

Guy's Hospital was built to commemorate the Gunpowder Plot.

King John ground the people down under heavy taxes.

Fallacy is another name for suicide.

A tallman is a man who calls every week for the furniture money.

The population of London is a bit too thick.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Dave Barnett has returned after an extended visit in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leigh have returned from a visit to Calgary.

Harold Gerry has returned to Ottawa, where he has been for the past several months.

King Brothers, of North Fork, recently succeeded in catching a mother wolf and nine pups.

John Bare, sen'or, who has been in poor health for some time, was in Bellevue for medical consultation last week.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Leigh on Thursday of last week.

A 500 drive and dance will be held in the Masonic Hall here on the night of Tuesday, April 12th, under the auspices of the Cowley Women's Institute. This organization recently sent a donation of $20 to the Crows' Nest Pass Sunday School Musical Festival.

The funeral of the late Thomas Smith, which took place from the Livingstone church to the Livingstone cemetery on Wednesday of last week, was one of the largest attendances ever seen here. The church was packed to standing with a crowd of people reaching out to the gates, while many sat in their cars. Rev. Mr. Griffith occupied the pulpit on this occasion. The floral offerings were many, it taking three cars to carry them. Tom was a young man around twenty-five, and had made a host of friends who will greatly miss him. The community joins in sympathy for the bereaved ones.

EXCERPTS FROM

NEWSPAPERS' LAW

The following excerpts from the newspapers law are printed for the benefit of any reader who may have mistaken ideas regarding same:

"1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office and state the reason for its not being taken.

"Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.

"2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears ages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, or collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until payment is made.

"3. Any person who takes a paper from the post office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not is responsible for pay.

"4. If a subscriber orders his paper stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the post office. This follows the sound principle that a man must pay for what he uses.

A SUBSCRIPTION BILL

When the mailman brings his burden,
Letters, missives, half a score,
Stores, poems, home-like chickens,
Editors' regrets galore;
Package quite fat and lengthy—
Dashing down my dearest hope,
Sometimes in my cup of pleasure—
'Tis the short, thin envelope.

Oh! the font anticipation

As I break the seal to read,
Hoping that the cheque is ample
For the present day of need;
But the joy is like a rainbow,
And my soul receives a chill
As there flutters from my fingers
An unpaid subscription bill.

Mistress (to new maid)—"Nora, you don't seem to know about finger bowls. Didn't they have them where you worked last?"

Nora—"No, mum; they mostly washed themselves afore they came to the tables."

IMIGRATION

Do we canadian citizens get a fair deal by sending in those foreigners and Orientals to labor against our own Boys and Girls and force our own citizens out of our own country in order to live. Why not put our own sons and daughters to work and put some capital and manufactures in the west to absorb this surplus labor that we already have and keep the money at home. We have millions of our own people in our own mother country that need this employment that will make good canadian citizens in stead of discriminat against our own citizens by sending in all those Northern Europeans and Bolsheviks from those Slavokias and those Italians that break our laws with their boot legging and counterfeiting and smuggling here in the pass and all this Red Prabaraganda such as the IWWs and this anarchithie prabaraganda against the British Flag and our own government and our own citizens unemployed and all these foreigners and Orientals that have all the employment, there something wrong somewhere. Who is at fault for those conditions and just sending in the men and leaving their families in Europe. Sending their money out of the country and all our own raw material into the U.S. to be manufactured into the finished product and the states get the profit besides the Duty on our products. Is not it three we canadians, woke up to the fact, and stop this thing and try and keep our own people here instead of sending in those that are with out capital and means those foreigners that do not use the English language and stop this colonization and giving them special privileges that our own citizens are not allowed.

Yours Truly,

E. T. EVANS.

DO SOMETHING FOR SOMEBODY

Do something for somebody somewhere

While jogging along life's road;
Help someone to carry his burden
And lighter will grow your load.

Do something for somebody gladly;
It will sweeten your every care;
In sharing the sorrows of others
Your own are less hard to bear.

Do something for somebody striving
To help where the way seems long,
And the homeless hearts that languish
Will cheer up with a little song.

Do something for somebody always,
Whatever may be your creed;
There's nothing on earth can help you
So much as a kindly deed.

Two darkies were reading the inscriptions on tombstones in a cemetery. One of them let-out a loud "Haw! Haw!" and when the other came to the tombstone he pointed to the inscription, which read:

"Not dead, but sleeping."
"Haw! Haw!" laughed the first darkie; "he ain't fooling anybody but himself."

THE CHEVROLET

Attaining a production of 112,499 commercial vehicles during 1926, an increase of more than 132 per cent over the preceding year, the Chevrolet Motor Company is now the world's largest manufacturer of gear shift trucks, according to figures just reported by company officials. The increase is a gain of 64,200 over the 1925 production of 48,299 trucks.

This enormous increase is attributed in no small degree to the numerous refinements and lowered prices of the new trucks. Dealers everywhere reported an enthusiastic reception by the public of these new models. The 1926 production in its turn had more than doubled the 1924 output of 23,134 trucks.

According to present manufacturing schedules, an even greater monthly production is contemplated for the trucks division during the coming months, to insure dealers a sufficient supply to meet the growing demand. Production during January, 1927, totalling 15,927 trucks, also broke all truck production records for a single month in the history of the company. The previous high water mark was in September, 1926, when 12,845 trucks were manufactured.

There was an instant babel of voices, and the rustle of those who, for their various reasons, must attempt the descent rather than remain at La Turbie during the night. Brandon, who had risen from his table, watched Joanna and Kenilworth. He saw that both of them turned immediately toward the foyer where Joanna had left her wrap. Then he slipped out the door and went to the big car in which Antoine awaited.

"As I expected," he said to the Monogaque, "she will not remain. Be ready to pull out when they approach the car. We want not more than two or three cars between us."

When Kenilworth and Joanna came out, many of the cars in the yard had already vanished in the fog, the horses coughing up the road monotonously. An attendant was ordering departures, insisting upon an interval of two minutes between them. Brandon waited until Joanna, her wrap held close about her, her mask in her hand now, had climbed into the seat beside Kenilworth. Then he touched Antoine's arm, and, at the next signal from the starter, the big car sped away.

In the smaller car Kenilworth reined in, but he made it a test of marked grimly. "You be a test of marked grimly," he said. "If you don't know," he said, "that what you've got the right idea at that. Better than mine. I almost asked you to marry me, and that's wholly against my principles."

"I'm glad you didn't," she returned. "I'm afraid I might have given in to that."

The starter appeared at their running board and asked them to proceed. They crept noiselessly out of the parking yard. Until they came to the first turn, some six yards away, the flickering lights from the club house aided them. Then, when they had swerved sharply to the left they were wrapped in wet, almost impen-trable obscurity. Ahead they could see only the faint glimmer of their own headlights.

Twice they bumped into cars. Each at the inner side of the road. Stalled there they were called out by members of a party going back aloft—even women in fragile slippers and delicate gowns already soggy from the damp—rather than fight the descent any longer.

The red car nosing downward at a snail's pace, struck a stump. "It was foolish of me to let you attempt to go down," Joanna declared. "Before we are too far away we must walk back. The car will be as safe at the side of the road as the others, being abandoned."

"If we have to walk," Kenilworth replied firmly, "it will be straight ahead. I'll get you down if I have to carry you."

"That's utter folly," she protested. At that moment another group, two women and a man stumbled by them, feeling their way back to the summit. "See," she exclaimed, "there are more who have given it up. We can walk back, drop out and wait for daylight. People below will understand."

He stubbornly negotiated another corner. When the car was crawling again he spoke, grimly.

"There isn't any safety in the whole world—in the part of it you and I inhabit—to make room for any sort of decent understanding of how a pretty woman might be caught and remain till daylight on La Turbie. You can stand a mysterious accident in the night with Prince Michael, but not with me in the mist at a mountain top club house where you have to wear a mask to save your face. Some could; with some it couldn't matter; you couldn't and you can't."

She bit her lip, and was silent. With a petulant gesture she brushed away the moisture that hung in great, glistening beads on her eyelashes. Suddenly she was startled by a light that appeared weirdly in the middle of the road almost at their front wheels, waving slowly to the right and left.

"Somebody smashed I suppose," Kenilworth muttered and, jamming his brakes, brought the car to a stop. Heavy, forbidding faces emerged from the fog on either side of them. Joanna cried out, Kenilworth with an oath, lunged across at the head of a man who reached in to his waistband, brandished a pistol and fired. A bullet whizzed past his head and he fell. A guttural voice, speaking a mixture of Monogaque and French, commanded:

"Monseigneur et Mademoiselle will be good enough to step from the car!" "Like—!" Kenilworth exclaimed, and struggled, but the grip on his arms left him powerless. The car was brought closer. By its pale light they saw that a dozen men surrounded the car and that firearms gleamed dully in their hands.

After her first cry of alarm Joanna at right. Something of her fright shone in her eyes, and Kenilworth was conscious that her face was pale. Otherwise she gave no sign. The gruff voice of the leader of the evil crew was heard again:

"It was ordered that you both descend. We have not great patience. The mademoiselle need not fear." Kenilworth advised Joanna to step out quietly. "We must go through it," he grumbled. "They probably will rob us with a thousand passions and then, politely let us go. These mountain brigands are thorough gentlemen as a rule."

The one who had been holding on to Joanna's wrists released them, then she was in the road. She stepped around the car to Kenilworth's side and from this position glared defiantly at the footpads who surrounded them. One of them caught the red sparkle of the enormous ruby that lay against her throat, from which her wrap had fallen. She instinctively fung up her hand to cover it. The bandit smiled and bowed gallantly. "A pretty thing, mademoiselle," he said in the native patois, "Mademoiselle's neck does not require such an ornament however!"

Kenilworth cursed at him, which only brought another ironic bow. The men closed in around the pair and they were ordered to walk with them. They were marched off the road past a hut, which Kenilworth recognized as the one before which the big car ahead of them for the first portion of their ascent, had stopped and dropped behind them. Behind him he but they entered a cluster of pine-trees and there crossed an open space of soggy heath. A low, low building loomed out of the mist before them, and they were ushered through a narrow door.

Inside the building was a startling scene. In the dim light the men, who had been placed about the eastern floor they saw half a dozen men and women whose costumes and dominoes proved to have been revelers at the club house, lined up against the wall, the men standing side at side, their hands bound behind them, women in an excited group. Armed ruffians guarded the women at one side, and the silent men at the other. Kenilworth was ordered to take his place among the men. For a brief moment he gave a sign of attempting fight, but Joanna murmured a reassuring word to him and without awaiting the command from their captors, moved over to join the group.

As Kenilworth had prophesied, the bandits robbed their victims with profuse apologies uttered in their guttural tongue. They seemed however, to be strangely inefficient in their plundering. The men, whose hands explored Kenilworth's inner pockets did not discover his wallet, in which was a sizeable sheaf of bank notes, nor his platinum and diamond snuff box. In the watch pocket beneath his waistcoat, he found a gold watch and an English pound note in his chance pocket was confiscated. His pearl dress studs were not noted. Curiously, he observed that the other men of his party, including the countess and her husband, were similarly treated. On the lapel of one victim, a tiny decoration built around a huge diamond, was unnoticed.

Will Raise Historic Ship

Schooner Nancy Was Sunk During War of 1812

The Ontario department of public works will soon call for tenders to raise the hull of H.M. Schooner Nancy, lying near the mouth of Nottawasaga river. The Nancy, British transport in the war of 1812, while taking supplies to the British garrison at Mackinac, was forced into Nottawasaga Bay and the commander, a crew left her and built a blockhouse on shore. A powder train was laid to the Nancy to destroy her if capture was threatened. After a heroic fight with the Americans the blockhouse caught fire, and the powder train was accidentally fired, sinking the vessel.

Plan Interesting Trip

Machine Gunners Will Travel From Toronto to Prince Rupert on Horseshoe

From Toronto to Prince Rupert, B.C., on horseback is the trip now being planned by six young members of the Canadian Machine Gun Corps as a fitting way to employ the summer months.

Through untracked regions, where the only guide is the compass, across rivers and finally through the Rocky Mountains, the party intend to follow at 6,000-mile route far north of any previously made paths across the continent.

The originator of the plan is Lance Corporal Ewart Warren, and his companions are Privates E. Hancock, S. Miller, M. Hatton, D. Halliday, and S. Flannivan. All are Toronto men, and they expect to resolve the backlog of several prominent business men.

Starting at the beginning of May, they hope to complete their journey within five months. Lance Corporal Warren, who will act as leader and guide, is no stranger to the northern country. For several years a resident of the West, he has made a number of hiking trips up to the woods, and has ridden the ranches in British Columbia and Alberta. Hiking through the wilds has always been his hobby, and he thinks his plan provides the ideal way of crossing the continent.

Speaking of his desire to emulate the early explorers, he remarked that he wished he had been one of them. "I don't know why I wasn't born a few hundred years earlier," he remarked. "I hate going anywhere by train. In fact, travelling to and from the West, I've often got off the train at a station and walked the next few miles. I felt I just had to."

First Telephone Conversation

Inventor's Statement Says Honor Shared by Three Ontario Cities Where did the first conversation, by telephone take place?

All loyal Canadians who are conversant with the subject will at once say "Brantford," having in mind the fact that the first telephone in Brantford was installed in 1876. Dr. Bell, at the time used to spend his holidays at the Ontario city, experimenting the while.

The American claim is set forward in the 1925 report of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in the words:

"In 1876 the first sentence was heard over the telephone in Boston; the first outside conversation took place between Cambridge and Boston; and the first long-distance message was sent between Salem and Boston."

Dr. Bell's own statement, which ought to be final evidence gives Brantford the honor, however. His words at that city in 1917, when the Bell memorial was unveiled, included these statements:

"The telephone was conceived in Brantford in 1871 and born in Boston in 1876. The first time that the instruments were placed miles apart and speech successfully transmitted was here in Brantford, August 10th, 1876. The transmitter was placed in Brantford, the receiving instrument was placed in Toronto, and the battery was in Toronto."

Thus three Ontario cities share the honor of giving to the world the first telephone speech.

Famous Twins Meet Prince

Residents of Brighton Are Ninety Four Years Old

Brighton, the holiday resort on the south coast of England, which owed its earlier fame mainly to the patronage of the Prince Regent some 100 years ago, received a visit from the regent's successor, the Prince of Wales.

At tea with the Mayor and Mayoress the famous Brighton twins, Matthew and Mark Gunn, aged 94 years, were presented. Matthew told the Prince that when he was ten years old he had delivered goods to Buckingham Palace.

"I want to help" says Allen Boudria

Tells facts from own experience to help others. Almost will with pain, weak and rundown, he won new health and strength through Tanlac

Allen Boudria, engineer, of 422 St. Patrick St., is one of Ottawa's best known citizens. "My purpose in telling the facts of my experience," he said, "is to help others who suffer as I did."

"For five years I was in misery. My whole system seemed out of gear, but my stomach troubled most. Even a drink of cold water would cause my stomach to bloat and swell abnormally. Gas would prevent me from sleeping at night so that I had to get up and walk the floor for hours. Violent stomach pains nearly drove me wild. I've seen times when I was doubled over, unable to straighten up."

"My friend M. Lapointe told me how Tanlac had helped him out of similar trouble, so I got some and used it in all. It just made me over. I feel 20 years younger than I am, and weigh 214 lbs. My appetite and sleep are both fine. I eat what I like and sleep like a top. Tanlac and nothing else made this great change. I'm for Tanlac."

It is suggested that judges be compulsorily retired when they have reached the age of seventy-five years. That does not seem to be a good rule. A judge, particularly may have gained a wide outlook in his service which would be missed on the bench.

The worms that infest children from their birth are of two kinds, those that find lodgment in the stomach and those that are found in the intestines. The latter are the most destructive, as they cling to the walls of the intestines and if not interfered with work have there. Miller's Worm Powders, therefore, both kinds of worms expelling them from the system serve to repair the damage they have caused.

When a man is told that the whole of religion and morality is summed up in the two commandments—to love God and to love our neighbor, he is ready to cry, like Charaka in Gobi, at the first sight of the sea, "Is this the mighty ocean? Is this all?" Yes, all; but how small a part of it do your eyes survey? Only trust yourself to it, launch out upon it, sail abroad over it, you will find it has no end; it will carry you round the world.

Announcement of the offer of two scholarships annually by E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and Chancellor of McGill University, to the first male candidate in Greek and Latin, and to the highest male candidate in mathematics entering the University, was made recently by Sir Arthur Currie, principal of McGill. A prize of $500 is attached to each scholarship.

According to the department of Colonization and Development of the Canadian Pacific Railway, there is every indication that there will be a great increase in the number of immigrants coming to Canada this year compared with the number locating during 1925. It has been estimated that immigration figures for this year will be almost double those of the past year. Since the first of the present year Canadian Pacific liners have brought to Canada approximately 15,000 new settlers.

E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announced from headquarters recently that the name of the new hotel now being erected at Regina would be "Hotel Saskatchewan." The new C.P.R. hotel at this place will be an eleven story structure containing 284 bedrooms with bath and will cost in the neighborhood of $1,500,000, the opening being scheduled for May 24. The hotel is being built on one of the finest sites in the city on Victoria Avenue, facing the park. It will be only with a few minutes' walk from the C.P.R. Station.

The Canadian Pacific Railway made an excellent showing in 1926 gross revenue for the twelve month period being the best shown since 1922 while net revenue was the best shown since 1917, being nearly 4% million ahead of the fine record of 1925. In gross earnings from railway and lake steamers the year resulted in a very notable increase over the preceding fiscal year, the showing being one of the best on record, while income from special sources, including ocean steamers, held up well, being only slightly below that of 1925, and also being one of the best exhibits ever made by the company.

At a meeting held in the Clubroom on Friday night last, the United Church Tennis Club was re-organized for the coming season. "Well, Maria," drawled Mr. Corniassel, "that's just what I was beginnin' to think myself."—Bottles.

A farmer engaged a young lad from a large town. One cold winter's morning the farmer told the boy to harness the mule to the cart.

The lad for some reason took no light with him, and he was unable to see that there was a cow in the stable with the mule.

After a long delay the farmer grew impatient, and shouted, "Billy, what are you doing?"

"I can't get the collar over the mule's head," yelled back the boy, "his ears are frozen."

Robert Livett, the new representative of District 18 of the United Mine Workers of America, is to be congratulated on his declaration for the elimination of communists from the ranks of the organization. The coal industry of British Columbia, Alberta and Nova Scotia has known what it is to be under the thumb of communism. Utterly unscrupulous in its attitude towards the operating companies; treating its agreements like the German Kaiser as a "scrap of paper," sowing the seed of disloyalty and discontent everywhere; the communistic element in the United Mine Workers left its mark in destruction of industry, unemployment and suffering among the membership of the organization over which it gained control, and exercised it in the most disgraceful manner while it lasted.—Mining Record.
